From January 1st, 1902, Mr. W. A. Witherspoon, who was for five years Stamp Clerk and Compact Manager at Richmond, and for five years subsequently Special Agent in the Southern States for the Caledonian Insurance Company of Scotland, will be associated with me in the conduct of the insurance business at Richmond. I return thanks to those who have hitherto favored me with their patronage, and beg to say that I am now, better than ever before, prepared advantageously to serve the interests of all who may be willing to commit their orders in this line to me for

The continued disastrous fire loss of the Companies requires now a greater exproise of brains and energy economically to secure proper fire insurance protection. I seek the accounts of those who, knowing the value of such protection, wish to buy it at the best rates obtainable.

The Companies represented by me have aggregate assets exceeding $250,000,000, and among them are some of the strongest in the world.

"The above is an actual statement of the facts in the four cases by which we have been brought into most undesirate
notoriety, and we are willing to leave it to the public whether we have in any instance been guilty of conduct such as to justify the attacks made upon us. In-asmuch as our house is commonly spoken of as "Shelburne's warehouse," we wish to state that Mr Shelburne has been engaged in the tobacco trade in this city for over thirty years. During this period there have been connected with him some thirty or forty men who are now in the tobacco trade in this and other markets, and any and all of these men, as well as all buyers during these thirty years, are given as references as to our business method."

Jackson Wrong. PHILADELPHIA, PA., Wednesday.-In

a lecture on "Altruism in Government" to-night, Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, said President Andrew Jackson struck a note in connection with this subject that was one of the most mis-chievous in American history—"To the victors belong the spoils."
"The lesson that we find so hard to learn," continued Eishop Potter, "is that office is not spoil, and that Jackson in-sulted the American conception of facts to describe it as a spoil.

"It was left to a greater Democrat, I venture to say, to redeem his party and enunciate the truth, for when Grover Cleveland said: 'Public office is a public trust.' he stated a truth which underlies the whole business."

This remark of the lecturer was received with great applause.-New York Herald.
